

By Anando Zaman

Exercise 4.3.7: How would you find a maximum spanning tree of an edge-weighted graph?

Solution: Here are some options...

- We could negate all edges then run MST
- Find max edge between all subsets.
- Reverse sort for Kruskalls(since Kruskalls normally sorts edges in ascending order of weight) for edges first and then pick edges that way.