Exercise 3.2.24: Prove that no compare-based algorithm can build a BST using fewer than $lg(N!) \sim NlgN$ compares.

Solution: Then we would have a sorting algorithm with fewer than $\sim NlgN$ comparisons (to build the BST and traverse it inorder).